V. Library Updates:

Aynor Library

July

- Summer Reading Program days had good participation numbers this month. Families have been outspoken as to how excited the children have been visiting the library this summer.
- Horry County Fire & Rescue, Bright Star Theatre, Myrtle Beach Art Museum, and B-Rad, the Magician, were all fantastic. Children and adults alike had a grand time asking questions and participating when given the opportunity.
- The Youth Services Library Assistant has started planning storytime themes for the next quarter. She has created an accessible document for all staff to use.
- The STEAM program, Kids of the Round Table, brought in 58 participants this month. The simple crafts and STEM activities, such as building a catapult from popsicle sticks and making Bristle bots, caused the children learn while having fun.
- Summer Reading is complete. Fantastic turn out for end of Summer Reading Ice Cream Party. 74 adults and children indulged in ice cream with all the toppings. We have made plans to repeat the ice cream party next year.

Bookmobile

July

- A total of 80 children, with ten teachers, were read to during July.
- Seven homebound residents and eight assisted living facilities were visited.
- Reading incentives were provided for the adult summer reading participants.
- The Bookmobile manager will be out on FMLA due to a personal injury at least until the end of August. The Library Assistant has been making stops using the Library van. She has gotten very creative in order to provide materials for patrons.

Bucksport Library

July

- Staff have gone out to Parks and Recreation centers for outreach programming for the entire summer.
- There was a twenty-three percent increase in the number of items checked out in July versus the previous month.
- There was a twenty-three percent increase in the number of items checked in from the previous month.
- The self-checkout system had more usage this month than the previous month.
- Program attendance showed an increase from previous months. Door count had thirty additional people in July.
- Device Advice has been a good resource for patrons having trouble filling out job application. One patron calls at least twice a week for help filling out job applications.
- The AWE computer gets used frequently by the children.

Carolina Forest Library

July

- The second month of Summer Reading was an exciting and bustling month. The library seemed to be filled with patrons at all times. Though the traffic count was not as high as last month, possibly due to Fourth of July closures and summer travel plans, there was a 12.7% increase in traffic since July 2022.
- Circulation statistics were, for the second month in a row, over 18,000 checkouts. Since there were over 18,000 checkouts in June, over 18,000 items were returned in July, which has kept staff and volunteers very busy shelving library material.
- Adult participation in programs was low this month. Even book clubs which usually have a decent turn out, had low participation. This may be due to patrons traveling during the summer or other engagements. However, this summer's program attendance has helped staff to reassess the programs offered and attempt to remarket them in the fall.
- The Youth Services staff did an exceptional job explaining, coordinating, and running Summer Reading this summer. 990 people attended Youth Services programs in the month of July, while 1,128 attended Youth Services events in June for a total of 2,118 attendees. As Carolina Forest continues to grow, program attendance and participation will likely increase every summer.

Conway Library

July

- Patrons and staff really enjoyed the Brag Tags this year. Conway Library gave out 918 tags in July!
- Conway Library staff helped a homeless patron fill out an application online for a rehabilitation center. He was able to get into the treatment facility in July. He thanked staff for their kindness and was happy to be getting the help he needs.
- 892 individual readers were logged in July for the Conway Library. Adult patrons really seemed to like participating in Summer Reading this year and having the prizes out on display definitely peaked interests.
- B-Rad the Magician was a big hit with children. There were over a hundred in attendance for this program.
- From a staff monthly report: Woman said she wanted staff to know how awesome they are. She says it's not just her that knows this, but she often hears members of the community saying how if they need help with anything, they go to Conway Library because they know they will get the help they need.

Green Sea-Floyds Library July

- Children enjoyed the Bristle Bots program. They especially liked having a Bristle Bots dance off.
- Staff members were happy to assist two patrons who sought device advice. One customer brought her laptop and printer.
   Staff assisted in setting up the devices and making them functional. Another individual required assistance using a new smartphone.
- The End of Summer community cook out with the Horry County Sheriff's Department was a huge success. There were 97 community members who enjoyed games, music, dancing and hot dogs. The Sheriff's Department passed out sheriff's badges, pencils, hand sanitizer, candy and backpacks.
- The library saw an increase in traffic during July. This is attributed to hotter days and a successful Summer Reading program, Full Steam Ahead program and the movie and craft series. The Branch Manager encouraged the community to use the library as a place to keep cool and keep busy.
- There was a sizeable increase in computer usage. Many patrons stopped in to cool off and use the computers. The Branch Manager thinks this number would have been slightly higher but staff provided more time to several test takers and people who were enjoying videos or playing games.
- The AWE computers were used for 547 minutes and there were 27 unique sessions.
- The Branch Manager is participating in the Horry County Government Leadership program.
   She represented the program at the 30 + Year Horry County Government Employee Banquet. She also completed her first book series with a luncheon and a tour of the Horry County L.W Paul Living History Farm.
- The Friends of the Library won a grant to provide Ott Lights to readers who are visually impaired.

Little River Library July

- The total number of material checkouts for July was 3237.
- The statistics for material check-ins increased by 11% over the previous month.
- The self-service machine continues to be used more frequently with 721 checkouts and 35 renewals for the month.
- Curbside pickups continue to show an increase and steady usage from previous month.

Dee Snelson is with Holly Snelson

We just got Madison's report card for the 4th quarter. I am so proud of all she has accomplished this year!

She went from being far behind her goals to far exceeding them. It's taken a combination of hard work by her, her teachers, us, and our new friends at the local library, but she is finally blooming as a student.

Loris Library

July

- Total checkouts were down from June; however, there were increases of 20% for Young Adult Fiction books, 16% for DVDs, as well as a 38% increase in Large Print Mystery, 21% in adult fiction, 41% in nonfiction, and 27% in science fiction.
- Computer sign-ups have steadily decreased since January; more people seem to be printing from their phones. The removal of half of this branch's public computers several months ago and the spacing out of remaining computers does not seem to have had any negative impacts on this location.
- The Manager and Youth Services Assistant both completed Outreach programs at two local day care centers and are currently working out schedules to continue with Outreach beginning in September.
- Preschool Storytime continues to draw new participants, many of them just infants. As some of the older regular attendees begin school in August, it's good that there are younger children coming in to keep the group going.
- The Manager and Youth Services Assistant both saw increased participation in the Summer Reading Program. Although attendance at certain programs was low, overall, children and adults logged more reading than in the previous year.
- Local author Tonya Lowe dropped off 10 copies of her latest book Indigo Isle to be made into a book club kit. The manager was able to secure Tonya to visit with the Loris Book Club in August during their regular monthly meeting.

North Myrtle Beach Library

July

- Summer Reading at North Myrtle Beach continued strong in July, with over 1,200 participants in library programs and more than 60,000 minutes logged for reading for the
- Computer use and printing rebounded from the previous month of June, when computers were down for a week.
- Most children's collections continued to increase from June circulation, with the exception of Easy Readers and Junior Non-fiction. Adventure Pack circulation decreased substantially from the previous month, but items do not tend to stay on the shelf.

- Special Guests B-Rad the Magician and Bright Star Theater presented exciting shows for children and their families. Library staff received many positive comments on both programs, which even attracted interest from visitors walking through the library entrance. The magic show generated more interest with 86 attendants, but families appreciated the cultural diversity that the African folktales offered.
- Family Movie Matinee, while a passive program, generated consistent attendance, interaction with library staff, and circulation of materials. The weekly movie played in the storytime area while families browsed materials with assistance from library staff for recommendations and summer reading incentives.
- Staff have done such a good job teaching patrons to use the self-checkout, digital apps, and interlibrary loans that patrons are now observed teaching other patrons.

- Patron comment on park passes: "I just want to make sure the county knows how much we appreciate this!"
- Patron comment on children's programming: "Thank you for all you do. Your welcoming personality and programs have changed our lives. I was staying home with [my child] prior to coming here, and we never saw or interacted with anyone. You helped him come out of his shell and helped us have an opportunity to meet other children and develop a network of friends."

Socastee Library July

Socastee Library had a fantastic Summer Reading program this year. 246 adults and 350 children participated for an approximate total of 596.
