Re: JULY 1, 2007 ~ JUNE 30, 2008 ~ GENERAL SESSIONS

Pursuant to the authority granted to me as Administrative Judge of the Court of General Sessions of the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit, effective July 1, 2007. It is

ORDERED that all terms of General Sessions Court shall start promptly at 9:30 a.m. for each day of the term, unless changed by the Presiding Judge for that week. All Solicitors, Public Defenders, Court personnel, and Defendants in jail shall be present in the appropriate courtroom by 9:00 a.m., and prepared to go forward with the work of the Court. It is further

ORDERED any vacations or requests to be excused for other reasons during the time periods of regularly scheduled General Sessions Court, shall only be signed by the Administrative Judge for General Sessions. If there is an immediate emergency the attorney may also approach the Administrative Judge for Common Pleas for a protection order. It is further

ORDERED the Solicitor and the Chief Public Defender of Horry and Georgetown County, including all attorneys under contract with the Public Defenders Office, shall appoint one member of their staff to view the jury venire at the jury qualification for that week. All other personnel shall be available for the work of the Court. It is further

ORDERED all Bond Motions and any Motions by bonding companies to be relieved of their bonds shall be heard at 9:00 a.m. on Monday of each term of General Sessions Court by the Circuit Judge assigned to guilty pleas that particular week, except as otherwise Ordered. Any Presiding Judge for Criminal Court may hear these or other motions at any time they deem proper. It is further

ORDERED that the Solicitor's Office shall produce a Trial Roster of cases for each trial week General Sessions Court. This Roster shall contain no more than twenty (20) cases ready for trial for that week. This Roster shall be produced to the Chief Judge for Administrative Purposes, the Chief Public Defender of Horry and Georgetown Counties, and all private attorneys on the trial list, at least Ten (10) days before the Monday of the trial week. No case shall be placed on the Trial Roster unless all discovery has been previously transmitted to the defense counsel. It is further

ORDERED that all Motions for Continuances shall be filed with the Clerk of Court, and copies delivered to the Chief Judge for Administrative Purposes and to the Solicitor/Assistant Solicitor who is responsible for the trial of the case, by 10:00 a.m. of the Thursday before the Monday of the trial week. It is further

ORDERED that Defendants who have not signed up to plead guilty during the trial week or who are not on the Trial Roster, shall not be subpoenaed to come to Court without prior written authorization of the Chief Administrative Judge. It is further

ORDERED that once a public defender, contract attorney, or conflict appointed lawyer, has received a copy of the warrant, that attorney must meet in person with the Defendant/Client within ten(10) days of that receipt. It is further

ORDERED that no Solicitor Public Defender or Attorney may have access to any Circuit Judge's office without prior express approval by the Circuit Judge. No Conferencing or discussions shall be conducted in the hallway between the Judge's office and courtroom. It is further ORDERED that this Administrative Order shall go into effect on July 1, 2007, and shall thereafter remain in effect unless rescinded by the Chief Justice of the State of South Carolina or the Chief Administrative Judge of the Court of General Sessions of the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit.
