WEEKLY UPDATE OCTOBER 12, 2015 – OCTOBER 16, 2015

MOSQUITO SPRAYING SCHEDULE

For 12 October 2015

Horry County will begin mosquito spraying, weather permitting, in the following areas:

- Pee Dee Highway/Bottle Branch Road area (over to Hwy 134)

Aerial spraying will be conducted in the evenings usually between 7 p.m. - dusk and ground operations from 7 p.m. - 11 p.m. Monday - Thursday weather permitting.

The chemicals used for mosquito control spraying are approved by the EPA and pose minimal risk to humans or animals. Individuals with asthma or other respiratory illness may wish to stay indoors and close windows and doors during spraying. In addition, homegrown fruits and vegetables should be washed, scrubbed, and/or peeled before eating.

To help keep our honeybee population safe, beekeepers are urged to contact Horry County Mosquito & Spraying to identify the location of their colonies. In addition, citizens with concerns, complaints, or those requesting spraying in their area can also contact Horry County Mosquito & Spraying at 915-5174.

HORRY COUNTY LEGACY BUSINESS RECOGNITION

Myrtle Beach, South Carolina – The Horry County Board of Architectural Review’s Legacy Business Recognition Program will recognize Peaches Corner on October 23, 2015, at 11 a.m. with a ribbon cutting ceremony. The Myrtle Beach landmark known as Peaches Corner has remained a symbol of summer for visitors and locals since it opened its doors 78 years ago. The restaurant, originally known as the Atlantic Ale House, was started by Lillian Justice Peach in 1937. The location had previously been used as a bath house, because of its close proximity to the Old Myrtle Beach Pavilion and the beach. In 1943, the restaurant was purchased by Johnny and Eunice Burroughs. They decided to keep the established name “Peaches”. Ownership of the restaurant was passed down to the Burroughs’s daughter Pamela Crutchfield, who managed the restaurant until the past decade when her son-in-law Briggs Dickerson took over as restaurant manager.

The Horry County Legacy Business Recognition Program pays tribute to local businesses that have contributed to the economic heritage of Horry County for more than 50-continuous years.

Peaches Corner is located at 900 North Ocean Boulevard in Myrtle Beach. The ceremony is free and open to the public.

For more information, contact Mary Catherine Hyman, Senior Planner with Horry County Planning & Zoning at 843-915-5340.

BUCKSPORT LIBRARY TO CLOSE FOR IMPROVEMENTS

Conway, South Carolina – The Bucksport branch of the Horry County Memorial Library will be closed Wednesday, October 28, 2015, and Thursday, October 29, 2015, for installation of a new mobile carriage to the mobile shelving unit. This installation will mean shelving space for additional titles and make it less crowded for the resources currently at the library. The Bucksport Library will reopen Saturday, October 31, 2015, at 9 a.m.

During the closure, patrons are encouraged to visit the Horry County Memorial Library's other nine locations throughout Horry County.

For a list of locations or more information visit the Horry County Memorial Library online at www.hcml.org or contact the Horry County Memorial Library Administrative offices at 843-915-5285.

HORRY COUNTY READS: RON RASH

Conway, South Carolina – The Horry County Memorial Library will host a month-long community read program called, Horry County Reads: Ron Rash. This read program is similar to the American Library Association and the National Endowment of the Arts' Big Read programs that were first started in 2006.

The Horry County Reads: Ron Rash is the county library's initiative to get people reading again and to expose readers to literary authors they might not normally read. The month-long program kicks-off on October 15 with a round table discussion on the Tales of the Ragged Mountains: A Discussion of Poetry and Fiction by Ron Rash, featuring several Coastal Carolina University faculty members. The kick-off event will be hosted at the Carolina Forest Library at 6 p.m. The event is free and open to the public.

Throughout the designated month, various events will take place at all 10 Horry County Memorial Library branches and the finale event will be a live presentation by Ron Rash on November 19, 2015, at the Horry County Museum auditorium located at 805 Main Street in Conway. The two-hour presentation will end with a reception and book signing next door at the Conway Library. This event is also free and open to the public.

Ron Rash is a critically acclaimed, award winning novelist, short story writer, and poet who has a strong connections to the Carolinas. He was born in Chester, SC, received his Masters' Degree from Clemson University, and is currently on the faculty at Western Carolina University.

Ron Rash is the author of the 2009 PEN/Faulkner finalist and New York Times bestselling novel Serena, in addition to four other prizewinning novels, including One Foot in Eden, Saints at the River,

HORRY COUNTY PLANNING DEPARTMENT SEEKING HOA CONTACT INFORMATION

Conway, SC – The Horry County Planning & Zoning Department is seeking contact information for all HOAs, POAs and property managers in the county. This will enable the department to keep them informed about planning matters that may be of interest to them and their members.

Please email the contact information to Nancy Tindall at tindalln@horrycounty.org or call the Horry County Planning & Zoning Department at (843) 915-5340.

2ND ANNUAL HORRY COUNTY COMMUNITY CLEANUP DAY

Conway, South Carolina – Horry County Council, in conjunction with Keep Horry County Beautiful and numerous partners, will host a countywide, volunteer litter cleanup event Saturday, November 7, 2015, from 8:30 a.m. to noon. The event will feature 11-locations around the county where volunteers can choose to participate. Sign-in at each location will begin at 8:30 a.m. with roadside pickup to begin at 9 am to noon.

Volunteers are invited to a post celebration party on the back lawn of the Historic Horry County Courthouse in Conway (1201 3rd Avenue) from 12 p.m. until 3 p.m. The litter collected at the various locations around the county will be transported to and displayed at the courthouse. There will be food, prizes, entertainment, and much more!

Pre-registration is highly encouraged and available on the Horry County website: www.horrycounty.org. Volunteers may follow the link to pre-register online or may download the preregistration form and mail it to Nancy Tindall, Horry County Planning & Zoning, 1301 2nd Ave, Conway, SC 29526. The public is invited to participate as well as church groups, civic organizations, community associations, local businesses, etc. Come out and show your support for a cleaner Horry County!

Volunteers should also download a waiver form to bring to the registration table on the day of the event. One form will be required per individual. NO ONE WILL BE ALLOWED TO PARTICIPATE IN
