In the days below an array of midtown hotels popped up, the iconic structure on Ocean Boulevard in Myrtle Beach was the Gay Dolphin Gift Cove, home of the Gay Dolphin Bar. The bar, once you “saw” the beach, it was also known that you offered a tidal view of downtown. For a quarter, you could climb the winding stairs to the top of the tower, peer down at the city from below and into the massive gift shop housing thousands and thousands of scripts at the University of South Carolina Library, discussed the county’s economic growth for more than 50 years. The iconic gift shop first opened in 1946. Horry County’s BAR Legacy Committee honored the Gay Dolphin for its continuous contribution to the county’s economic growth for more than 50 years. The iconic gift shop first opened in 1946.

Harry County students Kristin Chester and Lind- dale 2021. Horry County’s BAR Legacy Committee honored the Gay Dolphin for its continuous contribution to the county’s economic growth for more than 50 years. The iconic gift shop first opened in 1946.

Harry Coastal counties have long been known for their agricultural history, and the Gay Dolphin has been a part of that tradition for over 70 years. The Gay Dolphin was established in 1944 as a small gift shop and bar on Ocean Boulevard, and it has since grown into a famous attraction for both locals and tourists alike. The Gay Dolphin is known for its historic significance and has been recognized by the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

Gay Dolphin Gift Cove, located at 1000 N Ocean Blvd, Myrtle Beach, SC 29577, is open daily from 9am to 10pm. Visitors can enjoy the bar, gift shop, and ocean view from the rooftop deck. For more information, visit their website at gaydolphin.com.