

planting corn for a “corn maze” and adding goats and cows to the farm. The hay farm has produced approximately 125 round bales per season. He stated he would like to have the camping area operational around the first of September. He explained he would be living on-site in a renovated home, approximately 100 feet from the primitive camping area. The Board asked if he would come back in 24 months to present information proving he was a working farm. Attorney David Jordan explained the agritourism permit would be good for five (5) years, but the Zoning Administrator could review every 30 days. Mr. Strydesky wanted to limit events to 121 days, and Chairman Thompkins suggested allowing the number of days to be throughout the year, rather than being limited to a certain time. The Board discussed limiting the number of campers to 200 total campers at one time; Lou Conklin added staff had discussed limiting the number of days to 10 consecutive days to coincide with other County regulations. They also discussed vehicular traffic backing up on Hwy 701 trying to turn in. Keith Collins, HOA President of Pottery Landing which is a private gated community, expressed concerns with trespassers, noise, traffic, and property values. Zach Dusenbury spoke regarding the request but stated that he is not opposed to the request, but has concerns with trespassers from large weddings and camping, late night noise, and hunting. Sherrell Richardson spoke regarding privacy concerns and the ingress/egress. Mr. Thompson stated that the natural buffer will stay in place, in addition to his fence being extended. Lou Conklin explained the Agritourism ordinance assigns the days based on the approved events. After much discussion, Becky Billingsley made a motion to approve the request with quiet time at 10 PM, instead of 11 PM; no firearms; camping granted conditionally for 24 months; limit primitive campers to no more than 200; limit camping to 10 consecutive days; and fence the south side of the property. Wink Prince seconded the motion and it carried unanimously.

- B. Historic Preservation Awards - Lou Conklin explained the annual awards ceremony would be on May 21, 2019. There was some discussion about a keynote speaker. The Board asked Becky Billingsley to invite Lee Brockington to be the keynote speaker.

VI. Old Business

- A. Historical Markers Update – Chairman Thompkins and Becky Billingsley have been working with Ben Burroughs but the process has stalled. Mrs. Conklin explained the process of getting approval of the text and purchasing of the signage. She also stated she had met with Steve Howell and received some research on Little Lamb. Mrs. Conklin also mentioned wall signs. There was much discussion.
- B. Legacy Business – Joel Carter mentioned Palmetto Farms in Galivants Ferry, The Bowery in Myrtle Beach, and Spann Roofing in Conway. Lou Conklin said she had received information from Johnson Furniture Company in Conway. Gerry Wallace nominated Johnson Furniture. Others mentioned were Jerry Cox Oil Company, Horry Telephone Cooperative, Latimer’s Funeral Home, Dargan, Sea Captain’s House, Elliott Realty, Better Brands, C. L. Benton, and Horry Electric Cooperative. The Board decided to recognize Johnson Furniture Company, Latimer’s Funeral Home, and Horry Telephone.
- C. Preservation Plan Update – Lou Conklin reported there had been no changes to the Preservation Plan, because she had not had any time to work on it.

VII. Board Discussion

- A. Monthly Budget Report – Lou Conklin stated there was $4585.72 in the BAR budget and she recommended replacing both iPads that are needed to continue the Cemetery Project. Chairman Thompkins asked about retaining the old iPads. Joel Carter asked about adding historic signs. After much discussion, Chairman Thompkins said he would be meeting with Ben Burroughs to work on two or three signs.

Mrs. Conklin stated there were two webinars still available. She can email the link.

March 29 – Historic Preservation of African American Cemeteries
April 5 – Regulating Historic Signs

Chairman Thompkins expressed concern regarding the expenses to keep the Bryan House open.

Joel Carter questioned revising brochures. Mrs. Conklin explained the brochures were still relevant, except for the Allsbrook House. We are still using the brochures we have on hand, but putting a “burned down” sticker over the Allsbrook House.

- B. Food for Thought – Is owner consent required for local register listing of private property? Mrs. Conklin explained the property owner is notified 21 days prior to the Public Hearing. However, if they do not want their property on the local historic register, the Board cannot put it on the register.
- C. SHPO Conference – Mrs. Conklin asked the members to get their paperwork to her, so she can get them registered.

VIII. Next Meeting – April 16, 2019 at 2:30 PM

- IX. Adjourn – Becky Billingsley made a motion to adjourn and it was seconded. The motion carried unanimously. The meeting was adjourned at 4:22 PM.
